Following Glasgow (Scotland) and Newry (Ireland), the Atlantic Area Tour stops in La Rochelle, France...

Monday the 15th JUNE 2015
9.30 AM-16.30 PM
La Rochelle, EIGSI Engineering school

3rd Mobility Forum Edition, Atlantic Area Tour 2015 « ENERGIES for GREEN TRANSPORT »

For the third year, the EIGSI General Engineering School of La Rochelle France is hosting a high quality forum focused this year on renewable energies and energy efficiency in public transport.

Gas, biogas, electricity, algaefuel, hydrogen power-togas, magnetic levitation...

It will provide insight to existing and future trends in sustainable mobility. It will blend research and visions with actions. The forum is a one day conference. This event is FREE of charge and is open to all stakeholders including regional and local municipality officers interested in sustainable mobility, elected representatives, transportation, energy, environmental actors and also tourism entities.

18 confirmed speakers, 80 to 100 attendees, 20 to 30% attendees from abroad.

The conference will be simultaneously translated in French and English language and Forum participants will be offered lunch.
